

On August 22nd, 2010 we had a church wide picnic and dunk tank extravaganza. There were deserts made up by the Men's Ministry, hot dogs and hamburgers grilled up fresh, baked beans, a slew of other delectables, a jumper for the kids and a dunk tank to send the pastors and elders down to Davy Jones Locker (not permanently of course).

It was a time to hang out with friends and family and a time to meet someone new. It also marked the start of New Covenant Church's Start Strong Sunday.

Weren't able to attend? Don't worry. We got it all on film. Ok not film, film, but digital film. Digital film? Maybe SD card. Aah, forget it. We captured it on camera and made a fancy snancy video out of it so you can enjoy all the hoot nanning fun!

[video:<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KAdkomj6lmc510x310>]